HECTOR FINCH LIGHTING

TIBER WALL LIGHT

The Tiber shade has become very popular for use in kitchens and utility spaces and is now available as a wall light so can be used in the same environment as the new larger shade or a row of the small shades over a counter or island.

This swirled glass, mirrored shade echoes mid 20thC industrial lighting and is available in classic green or grey. Great over kitchen islands, counters or in hallways, this is an exclusive design for Hector Finch Lighting.
